MARSHALL MEDICAL CENTER CONGRATULATES THIS YEAR’S HEALTHCARE SCHOLARSHIP RECIPIENTS

June 4 2014—Each year, Marshall Medical Center awards college scholarships to deserving high school seniors who are planning careers in healthcare. The award recipients are chosen based on a number of factors, and it’s always a difficult decision selecting from an amazing number of high achieving students in El Dorado County.

The $1,000 scholarships are awarded by a Marshall representative at each school’s awards night. Marshall congratulates the following students for their respective accomplishments and wishes them well in their future endeavors:

Haley Owens, El Dorado High; Jessica Whittet, Golden Sierra High; Ellyse Gabrielle Flores, Oakridge High; Melissa Criddle, Ponderosa High; Ryan Nguyen, Union Mine High.

###

Marshall Medical Center is an independent, nonprofit community healthcare provider located in the heart of the Sierra Foothills. Marshall Medical Center includes Marshall Hospital, a fully accredited acute care facility with 113 beds in Placerville; several outpatient facilities in Cameron Park, El Dorado Hills and Georgetown; and many community health and education programs. Marshall has more than 200 board-certified physicians and 1,500 employees providing quality healthcare services to more than 175,000 residents of El Dorado County.